The Food Pantry is in need of delivery day volunteers. As our numbers are growing, we are ordering heavier loads and need willing bodies to help unload the delivery truck and stock for the week. The next few deliveries are: Tuesday, Oct 28, Monday, Nov 10 and Tuesday, Nov 25. Our truck usually arrives between 9:30-10:00 am. If you are interested, please show up on any of the above listed days by 9:20 am and we will be happy to add you to our crew!

Thank you, Angie and Ramon Gutierrez and Gloria and Tim York for purchasing and serving the donuts and making the coffee after 10am Masses.

Our Catholic Food Pantry in September served 277 households consisting of 844 individuals, 186 of those individuals were new to our Food Pantry. I anticipate with the government shut-down we will see a significant increase over the next few weeks. We are raising funds to build a new Food Pantry. If you are interested in contributing, please write New Building Fund on the memo section of your check or envelope.

PLEASE NOTICE WE HAVE ADDED A VIGIL MASS FOR ALL SAINTS

Fr. Oby Zunmas and the Parish Council are inviting anybody who has a clear vision of our Parish's future. Where do you see our Parish in twenty years? Gillespie Hall and the Rectory were built in 2007 by a group of volunteers with a vision. We are purchasing the houses on 701 and 703 Hickory Avenue. What do we want to do with the land? If you want to be on a Planning Committee that reports to the Parish Council call Fr. Oby Zunmas at 580-475-5407 to set up a meeting to share your vision.
